

Central Florida Fruit Production News

View this email in your browser

Winter Weather School November 15. Sign up now!

Learn about the Florida Climate Outlook and Forecast, new FAWN tools for crop decision making, critical temperatures and monitoring farm conditions, and Ag Water Policy Services and cost share opportunities. 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and includes lunch at the Lake County Extension Center in Tavares.

Interested in alternative fruit crops? Fruit Crop Management Short Course

Offered Nov. 6-7 at the CREC in Lake Alfred. Learn about flowering, dormancy, irrigation, nutrition, fruit set, and more for peaches, brambles, pomegranates, hops, blueberry, tropical and subtropical fruit with speakers from Georgia, California, South Carolina, and Florida. Register.

Cold Tolerant Citrus Production for the Southeastern Coastal Plain

Dec. 13. Live Oak Florida. Registration and details.

Pile Burner Class

February 14, 2018. Southwest Florida Research and Education Center, Immokalee, Florida. Contact Mongi Zekri, Office Phone: 863 674 4092, Cell: 239 595 5494, email: maz@ufl.edu

Student Survey on Farm Waste and Garbage

If you attended the Central Florida Fruit Growers' Day, you may have met Margeaux Graham and taken her survey. If you did not, please consider taking this quick survey by November 20th.

